Tornado Relief - SNAP and WIC Can Help

SNAP replacements exist for households that lost food due to power outages or other disasters. This is only for people currently participating in the SNAP program. Visit THIS PAGE to apply.

Not on SNAP? Disaster-SNAP allows for replacement benefits for lost food, even for people not participating in SNAP. This must be activated by TN and the Federal government, which is currently pending. We will keep you updated. To track status updates for D-SNAP in TN, click HERE and follow TEMA news updates HERE.

The WIC Program

WIC offices are poised to respond to the need for replacement WIC benefits. If you are a recipient of WIC, please reach out to your local WIC office if you have lost benefits in the recent disaster. You can find your local WIC office HERE.

If you need food assistance and think you may be eligible for WIC, please reach out to your local WIC office to see how they can help you get approved. To understand your eligibility, check out our WIC Eligibility Flyer.

Emergency Food

Need food now? Second Harvest Food Bank of Middle TN has a Find Food tool to locate a pantry near you distributing food.

These Emergency Food Bank sites are offering tornado assistance and do not require proof of address or any form of ID. They will give as many anonymous food boxes as necessary and will serve clients from any county:
